

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since this law has been enacted, our time at home has been significantly improved. While we used to receive 15 calls per, now we only receive one. It is important that our privacy continue to be protected by perserving the law Indiana enacted.